

Filip Michiels steps down from Ordina Supervisory Board

Nieuwegein, 4 February 2021

Ordina today announces that Filip Michiels is stepping down as a member of Ordina's Supervisory Board with immediate effect in connection with his appointment as COO at IT services provider Computerland, a part of the NRB Groep.

Filip Michiels joined Ordina as a member of its Supervisory Board on 30 June 2020. In that capacity, he was also a member of the remuneration, nomination and HR committee. His term as a Supervisory Director ran until the end of the General Meeting in 2024 and, in connection with his appointment at the NRB Groep, ends today.

Johan van Hall, chairman of the Supervisory Board: "Filip's contribution to the board was highly appreciated. We would like to thank him for this contribution and wish him every success in his future career".
